Extra-section flights are permitted under Annex II, Section 5 of the U.S.-Argentina Air Transport Agreement, which states that each country will approve a reasonable number of such flights. Aerolineas submits that the operation of the foregoing extra-section flights during the peak winter travel season is fully consistent with the bilateral and the public interest. To the extent necessary, Aerolineas requests a waiver of any advance filing requirements that might otherwise be applicable to this request.

Please contact the undersigned with any questions.

Sincerely yours,

Charles F. Donley II
