RE: United/Lufthansa Blanket Statements of Authorization,
Order 98-4-8

Dear Ms. Bingham and Mr. Wellington:

Pursuant to discussions with your staff, United and Lufthansa wish to advise you that they intend to continue offering code-share service to the following third-country points via Germany (LH/UA*):

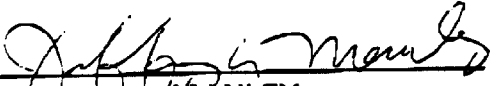

Linz, Austria
Basel, Switzerland
Manchester, England

These third-country points were inadvertently omitted from the list attached to the joint United/Lufthansa application dated January 26, 1998, in which renewal was sought for various outstanding statements of authorization. The statements of authorization previously issued for these points would have expired on May 29, 1998 absent renewal. We understand that services to these points are now covered by the blanket statements of authorization and need not be specifically renewed.

By this notice, United and Lufthansa confirm that by inadvertently omitting these points from their renewal list they did not intend to signal any plan to discontinue code-share service to them.

Respectfully submitted.
