Re: Application of Atlas Air, Inc. for Emergency Waiver of Dormancy Condition, Docket OST-02-11985 - 2

Dear Ms. Bingham:

On March 27, 2002, Atlas Air, Inc. applied for an emergency waiver, through April 30, 2002, of the 90-day dormancy condition applicable to its allocation of U.S. Brazil frequencies. The application advised that American, Delta, Polar and United had indicated no objection. By this letter, we would like to let you know that the remaining carriers polled – Continental, Evergreen, FedEx, Gemini, and UPS – have similarly stated that they do not object to the dormancy waiver request.

Thank you very much for your assistance.

Very truly yours,

Russell E. Pommer
Associate General Counsel and
Director of Regulatory Affairs
