

COMPLIANCE HISTORY

14 C.F.R. §204.3(o)

Republic Airlines is a newly formed subsidiary of Republic Airways Holdings, and has not engaged in commercial endeavors until most recently, and has not engaged in any air transportation. As such, there are no pending investigations, enforcement actions or formal DOT complaints filed with respect to Republic Airlines.

Chautauqua Airlines is a “relevant corporation” within the meaning of 14C.F.R. Part 204. There have been no formal complaints filed against Chautauqua by the DOT. There is one pending FAA enforcement action against Chautauqua, as follows:

FAA issued a Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty (Case No. 2001WP710471) dated November 8, 2002 proposing a civil penalty in the amount of $30,000 arising from alleged violations of the Hazardous Materials Regulations. Chautauqua has requested an informal conference to discuss this case with FAA counsel to reach a mutually agreeable resolution to the case.
