

Cooperative Agreements

Other than the wet lease agreement attached as Exhibit QA-10, Queen Air has no agreements or cooperative working relationships, either oral or written, with any U.S. or foreign air carrier which would affect its proposed service. This wet lease agreement and other normal commercial arrangements for airline operations are the only such agreements Queen Air anticipates entering into in the future.