

Dear Sirs:

I fear the withdrawal of Northwest Airlinck Service to Jackson Tennessee would have a huge economic impact on the Jackson community. As a frequent commuter, a minimum of a hour drive to the next closest airline facility would deter myself from air travel. This as well would deter commuters and potential industries from making Jackson Tennessee a destination for travel and expansion respectively. Thank you for your time and attention. Stephen Strube