

The city of Jackson, TN is much too important to the economy of the Mid-South area for Northwest to withdraw its "Airlink" services. Jackson is a growing city which supports many businessmen for whom travel is a necessity. I implore the DOT to deny the termination of Northwest Airlink at this time.