

This proposed rule change would adversely change our companies ability to move freight internationally.. Rates have increased, fuel surcharges have increased and anbd security has increase Dramtically causing considerable hardship on the shipping industry. This proposed increase on the dim rule would have adverse affects on future shipments and would cause use to look for other alternative to ship our goods. Conversion from airferight to ocean freight which would diminish the airline lift.