

I hope that the US government will support the bid by Alaska Airlines to service the LAX-MEX route that Delta Air Lines has given up. This is a great opportunity for an airline that has worked hard to serve the west coast routes to expand into Mexico City. LAX is a mini-hub for Alaska Airlines...more so than AA and CO. I urge you to support this application.