

I have Multiple Sclerosis and need to have my service dog with me. Smudge is a black lab and large. We flew last year. This wonderful event would never occurred for me if I had not had my service dog. I become very disoriented without her. If I lose my balance she is right there for me. I get very dizzy if I have to pick up anything.