

Colgan Air has performed as outlined in their original proposal of 2002. They have supported the airport and community as a whole. I beleive that providing EAS service to the Dulles International Airport will continue the trend that they have started for this region.