RE: 30-Day Notice of United Air Lines, Inc., Deutsche Lufthansa AG, Lufthansa CityLine GmbH and Air Dolomiti SpA Lare of Additional
Code Shares (Undocketed and Dockets OST-04-19148, 03-15485 and 02-11856)

Dear Ms. Rosenberg and Mr. Wellington:

Pursuant to the blanket Statements of Authorization granted to United Air Lines, Inc. ("United") and Deutsche Lufthansa AG ("Lufthansa") by Order 98-4-8 issued April 9, 1998 (Undocketed), Lufthansa CityLine GmbH ("Lufthansa CityLine") by Notice of Action Taken dated July 15, 2003 (Docket OST-03-15485), and Air Dolomiti SpA Lare ("Air Dolomiti") by Notice of Action Taken dated April 17, 2002 (Docket OST-02-11856), and the blanket exemption granted to United for worldwide code-sharing on flights operated by Lufthansa and Lufthansa CityLine (Notice of Action Taken dated January 24, 2005, Docket OST-2004-19148), United and Lufthansa (on behalf of itself and its subsidiaries, Lufthansa CityLine and Air Dolomiti) hereby notify the Department that, effective on or after February 2, 2006, United's "UA" designator code will be displayed on flights operated by Lufthansa, Lufthansa CityLine or Air Dolomiti between:

- Frankfurt, Germany and Pisa, Italy
- Munich, Germany and Pisa, Italy<sup>1/</sup>

<sup>1/</sup> United, Lufthansa and Air Dolomiti have previously given notice to the Department of code-share services between Munich and Pisa, but are jointly giving this notice as these routes may now also be operated by Lufthansa CityLine on Lufthansa's behalf.

To the extent necessary, United, Lufthansa, Lufthansa CityLine and Air Dolomiti request a waiver of the 30-day notice requirement. The code-share flights to Pisa are replacement flights for services currently being operated to Florence. The carriers have been advised by the Italian authorities that, effective February 2, 2006, flights to the Florence airport will be temporarily re-routed to Pisa due to runway construction at Florence. The proposed code-share services are consistent with the bilateral air transport agreements between the United States and Germany and Italy.

Respectfully submitted,
