RE: Joint Application of Northwest Airlines, Inc. and Aeroflot Russian Airlines, Docket OST-06-26106

Dear Sirs:

Yesterday, October 24, 2006, Northwest and Aeroflot filed what is styled a "Supplement No. 1" to their above-referenced Joint Application. In fact, this filing amends their joint application to add a request for an allocation of frequencies under the U.S./Russia Air Services Agreement.

Under 14 CFR §302.5(b), the filing of such an amendment restarts the time for the submission of responsive pleadings to the application, as amended. The time period for answers to applications for frequency allocation is the same as that for exemption applications. 14 CFR §302.301(a). In these circumstances, the answer date for the Joint Application, as amended, is November 8, 2006.

This is to clarify that United will answer the Joint Application, as amended, on that date and not on October 30, 2006, as indicated in the letter of the undersigned, dated October 24, 2006, and filed in this docket prior to the submission of "Supplement No. 1."

Respectfully submitted,

Jeffrey A. Manley
Counsel for
UNITED AIR LINES, INC.
