RE: Letter of Support – Change of CommutAir Schedule

On Monday, October 30, 2006, Mr. Joel Raymond, Director of Marketing, CommutAir, and Mr. Christopher Kreig, Manager, Adirondack Regional Airport, discussed proposed changes to CommutAir's flight schedule for the Adirondack Regional Airport. Specifically, they discussed changing the schedule to provide non-stop service twice daily to Albany, New York.. CommutAir would still provide one flight daily to Boston. To promote the new service, Mr. Raymond and Mr. Kreig discussed setting the fare for the flights to Albany at $25 each way and would run this promotion through the end of February 28, 2007. Mr. Raymond also proposed offering up to $10,000 towards the marketing of this service and the existing service to Boston as a means of increasing enplanements.

The Town of Harrietstown wholeheartedly supports this proposal. We believe that this is an opportunity to increase enplanements by providing more choice to the traveling public and position Adirondack Regional Airport as an affordable, convenient alternative to driving to and from Albany, NY and Burlington, VT.
